

Higley Hydropower Facility, New York

Our Presence in New York

 74 Hydropower Facilities 714 MW	 57 Low Impact Hydropower Institute Certified Facilities
 3 Wind Facilities 160 MW	Total Generating Capacity 874 MW
 National System Control Center, Queensbury

Q3 2021

NEW YORK PROFILE	 440,000 Homes' electricity use for one year	 300 Employees 250 Indirect jobs	 530,000 Cars Avoided emissions equal to GHGs from cars driven for a year*
	* Avoided emissions estimates based on U.S. EPA calculations

An Active Community Partner

- Hosting students from Clarkson University and State University of New York institutions to provide real-life learning opportunities
- Transferring culturally significant land to the Mohawk People through the Hiawatha Institute for Indigenous Knowledge
- Ensuring the safe migration of Lake Sturgeon, American Eel and other species to protect the health of the Oswegatchie River

Our Extensive Community Benefits

- Contributing $24 million in annual local property taxes
- Investing $18.5 million in capital projects annually
- Partnering with 600 local businesses and community organizations Providing access to 95 recreational areas